Description: The Founder presents a project for the sale and installation of drinking water filtration devices in residential buildings. He plans to sell filters in his stores and intends to open 10 such outlets. There is a pre-order for the sale of 9 thousand filters with one enterprise for its employees.

The difference from other companies is that each client enters into an individual contract for the first year, which includes services. In addition, installation and one-time replacement of filter cartridges are provided free of charge. This provides clients with an additional level of confidence and comfort.

The company also offers bonus programs and benefits that other manufacturers do not offer. The initiator strives to provide customers not only with high-quality products, but also with a high level of service, making the use of devices as convenient and profitable as possible.
