Description: The founder plans to organize activities for the production of pure and natural mountain honey without impurities, and its further sale in a volume of up to 6 tons per year. The founder invested $3,500 to prepare contracts for the purchase of necessary equipment and market research, as well as organizing production. Currently, there are many honey producers on the Uzbekistan market, but Founder's product has an advantage over its competitors due to its high quality, naturalness and affordable price.
The founder has over 20 years of experience in beekeeping and knows how the process works.
