Description: It is planned to open a network of bakeries in Tashkent for baking bread products. The products will be sold to order for restaurants, shops, shopping centers and for direct sale. At the moment, formal orders have been prepared for audiences of 5,000 people and several large restaurants. This segment is developing at a very rapid pace. The bakery's average daily turnover is estimated at $1,000. The main competitor in the market can be considered the Sofia baking house. However, our advantage is new recipes from various cuisines, which have no analogues in Uzbekistan.

The founder has 3 years of experience as a baker and knows how the process works.
